fourth sunday of advent - love

* * On this fourth Sunday of Advent we light the love candle. This is the day before Christmas and whether we're ready or not, it will be here tomorrow. We think of Mary, the mother of Jesus, and whether she felt prepared or not her waiting was nearly at its end. Jesus, the Savior of the world would come to be with us in His perfect timing. Advent is a season to learn from Mary what it looks like to humbly accept what the Lord desires, whether or not we feel ready or prepared for what He has planned.

God is waiting to break into our lives, to deliver us from the sin that entangles. Will we be like Mary and open ourselves to Him? Will we believe that there is blessing in believing that the Lord will do as He says? This is our prayer for you today - that you would have the courage to open yourself up to receive God's love this Christmas. That you would believe that He is who He says He is and let His love transform your life. That in turn you might love others and transform our world.

Advent Guide Note: This week we're reading He is Here in the Jesus Storybook Bible (Luke 1:26-38, 46-56).
