

TAKE weekly focus: jake & sara tibbe

NEXT step

Today we welcome our global workers, Jake and Sara Tibbe, along with their kids Luke and Anna, back to the US for a brief visit. The Tibbes were sent two years ago from Calvary Church to Indonesia, where they have learned the language, adjusted to the culture, and taken on significant ministry roles.

Jake, in addition to seminary studies is working on building deep relationships with a network of evangelical pastors and lay leaders while learning more about the leadership's vision and mission. He's had opportunities to preach as well as to train students in Discipleship Multiplication techniques - both in the Indonesian language. Their prayer is that they can be mutually encouraging and sharpening as they strive to serve God together and reach out to the communities around them.

Sara teaches second grade and coaches girls' basketball at Mountainview Christian School. (Ask any of them about the beauty and fun of the mountains they live near!) The students, in addition to regular course work, have the opportunity to develop a larger heart for the nations as she teaches some of the same things Calvary Kids learned from her in Globetrotters Kids-N-Action. Although many of the students are from international Christian families, some are not, which gives Sara opportunities to share God's love.

If you would like to greet the Tibbes and hear more directly about their ministry, they will be in the Gathering Place just past the Connection Point between services and briefly after second service today.

Got Books?

From now through June 24, Calvary Kids will collect books for the Second Grade Classroom at Mountainview Christian School in Salatiga, Indonesia where Calvary member Sara Tibbe teaches. This is an international Christian school that serves the children of Christian Service Workers around the world as well as Indonesian and Korean families that have chosen an English education for their children.

To donate a book, please leave it in the treasure chest by the children's check in area. We specifically would like fiction and non-fiction books from a beginning reading level through fourth grade. Favorite series include, but are not limited to, the following: Magic Tree House, Nate the Great, Frog and Toad, Cam Jansen, Mr. Putter and Tabby, Henry and Mudge, Amelia Bedelia, Fancy Nancy, Geronimo Stilton, Junie B. Jones, Horrible Harry, Mercy Watson, Ivy and Bean and Jesus Story-book Bibles.

cityfest update

Many of you may have heard that Luis Palau was diagnosed with Stage 4 lung cancer early this year. He has been through two series of chemotherapy and has recently started immunotherapy. Although his most recent scan showed a slight increase in the cancer, the medical team remains encouraged and Luis and his family remain at peace. Please continue to pray that God would encourage them and bring health to Luis for the work He still has for him, including – we hope – time with us here in West Michigan in September.
